

NEGRO TEACHER MEETING CALLED

Staff Of County School System
Convenes Saturday to Discuss
Plans For New Year.

All Negro teachers in the Mecklenburg county school system will meet at 9 30 o'clock Saturday morning at Second Ward High school in Charlotte in order to discuss plans for the new year.

The new school year for Negro pupils already has begun in the Pineville district. All other Negro schools in the county system will open next Monday morning.

Superintendent J. W. Wilson of the county school administrative unit will be present at the meeting of Negro teachers Saturday.
